Sanitarian in Training Environmental Health Practice Form For License Renewals Only

According to Section 4736.15 of the Ohio Revised Code, a sanitarian in training (SIT) may engage in the practice of environmental health for a period not to exceed five years, provided the SIT is supervised by a registered sanitarian.

In accordance with Section 4736.10 of the Ohio Revised Code, a SIT shall apply for registration as a sanitarian within three years of his registration as an SIT. The Board may extend the registration of any SIT who furnishes, in writing, sufficient cause for not applying for registration as a sanitarian within the three-year period. Third year SIT renewals will not be issued unless an extension has been granted by the State Board of Sanitarian Registration.

“Practice of environmental health” means consultation, instruction, investigation, inspection, or evaluation by an employee of a city health district, a general health district, the environmental protection agency, the department of health, or the department of agriculture requiring specialized knowledge, training, and experience in the field of environmental health science, with the primary purpose of improving or conducting administration or enforcement under any of the following:

- (1) Chapter 911., 913., 917., 3717., 3718., 3721., 3729., or 3733. of the Revised Code;
- (2) Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code as it pertains to solid waste;
- (3) Section 955.26, 3701.344, 3707.01, or 3707.03, sections 3707.38 to 3707.99, or section 3715.21 of the Revised Code;
- (4) Rules adopted under section 3701.34 of the Revised Code pertaining to rabies control or swimming pools;
- (5) Rules adopted under section 3701.935 of the Revised Code for school health and safety network inspections and rules adopted under section 3707.26 of the Revised Code for sanitary inspections.

Practice of environmental health” does not include sampling, testing, controlling of vectors, reporting of observations, or other duties that do not require application of specialized knowledge and skills in environmental health science performed under the supervision of a registered sanitarian.

If you engaged in the practice of environmental health in the past 12 months, please have your supervising RS complete the following information:
