4736.01 State board of sanitarian registration definitions.

- (A) “Environmental health science” means the aspect of public health science that includes, but is not limited to, the following bodies of knowledge: air quality, food quality and protection, hazardous and toxic substances, consumer product safety, housing, institutional health and safety, community noise control, radiation protection, recreational facilities, solid and liquid waste management, vector control, drinking water quality, milk sanitation, and rabies control.
- (B) “Sanitarian” means a person who performs for compensation educational, investigational, technical, or administrative duties requiring specialized knowledge and skills in the field of environmental health science.
- (C) “Registered sanitarian” means a person who is registered as a sanitarian in accordance with this chapter.
- (D) “Sanitarian-in-training” means a person who is registered as a sanitarian-in-training in accordance with this chapter.
- (E) “Practice of environmental health” means consultation, instruction, investigation, inspection, or evaluation by an employee of a city health district, a general health district, the environmental protection agency, the department of health, or the department of agriculture requiring specialized knowledge, training, and experience in the field of environmental health science, with the primary purpose of improving or conducting administration or enforcement under any of the following:
 - (1) Chapter 911., 913., 917., 3717., 3721., 3729., or 3733. of the Revised Code;
 - (2) Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code as it pertains to solid waste;
 - (3) Section 955.26, 3701.344, 3707.01, or 3707.03, sections 3707.38 to 3707.99, or section 3715.21 of the Revised Code;
 - (4) Rules adopted under section 3701.34 of the Revised Code pertaining to home sewage, rabies control, or swimming pools;
 - (5) Rules adopted under section 3701.935 of the Revised Code for school health and safety network inspections and rules adopted under section 3707.26 of the Revised Code for sanitary inspections.

“Practice of environmental health” does not include sampling, testing, controlling of vectors, reporting of observations, or other duties that do not require application of specialized knowledge and skills in environmental health science performed under the supervision of a registered sanitarian.

The state board of sanitarian registration may further define environmental health science in relation to specific functions in the practice of environmental health through rules adopted by the board under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

4736.02 State board of sanitarian registration.

- (A) There is hereby created the state board of sanitarian registration. The board shall consist of the director of health or his designated representative, the director of environmental protection or his designated representative, and five members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Each member appointed by the governor shall be a registered sanitarian; however, the initial five members appointed by the governor shall be persons who meet the education and experience requirements of section 4736.08 of the Revised Code for registration as sanitarians. Of the five members appointed by the governor, at least one and not more than two shall be employees of a general health district; at least one and not more than two shall be employees of a city health district; and at least one and not more than two shall be employed in private industry. Not more than one member may be employed by a university and not more than one member may be employed by an agency or department of the state.

Within ninety days of the effective date of this section, the governor shall make initial appointments to the board. Of the initial appointments, two shall be for terms ending one year after the effective date of this section; two shall be for terms ending two years after that effective date, and one shall be for a term ending three years after that effective date. Thereafter, terms of office shall be for three years, each term ending on the same day of the same month of the year as did the term which it succeeds. Each member shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the end of the term for which he was appointed. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the remainder of such term. Any member shall continue in office subsequent to the expiration date of his term until his successor takes office, or until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first.

The governor may remove any member of the board for malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance after an adjudication hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code

4736.03 Organization of board.

The state board of sanitarian registration shall organize within thirty days after its initial members have been appointed by the governor. The board shall annually elect a chairman and vice-chairman from its members and shall elect a secretary to serve at the pleasure of the board. The chairman and the secretary may administer oaths. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum. Members shall be compensated for their necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

The board shall adopt and may amend or rescind rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the administration of the examinations prescribed by section 4736.09 of the Revised Code, prescribing the form for application, establishing criteria for determining what courses may be included toward fulfillment of the science course requirements of section 4736.08 of the Revised Code, determining the continuing education program requirements of section 4736.11 of the Revised Code, and for the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

4736.04 Adoption of seal.

The state board of sanitarian registration shall adopt a seal bearing the name “State board of sanitarian registration.”

4736.05 Meetings.

The state board of sanitarian registration shall hold at least one meeting annually to review and evaluate applications for registration as sanitarians and sanitarians-in-training, conduct examinations, review and approve expenses, prepare and approve reports, and transact all other business as may be necessary to administer and enforce Chapter 4736. of the Revised Code. Special meetings shall be called by the secretary upon written request of any three members of the board or upon the written request of ten registered sanitarians.

4736.06 Depositing receipts - employees.

- (A) All receipts of the state board of sanitarian registration shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the occupational licensing and regulatory fund.
All vouchers of the board shall be approved by the chairperson of the board or secretary, or both, as authorized by the board.
- (B) The board may employ such persons as are necessary to administer and enforce this chapter.

(1997 H 215, 09-29-1997; 1993 H 152, 07-01-1993; 1991 H 298; 1985 H 201; 1979 H 204; 1977 H 137)

4736.07 Records.

The state board of sanitarian registration shall keep a record of its proceedings and a record of all applications for registration which shall include:

- (A) The name and address of each applicant;
- (B) The name and address of the employer or business connection of each applicant;
- (C) The date of the application;
- (D) The educational and experience qualifications of each applicant;
- (E) The date on which the board reviewed and acted upon each applicant;
- (F) The action taken by the board on each application;
- (G) A serial number of each certificate of registration issued by the board.

The board shall prepare annually a list of the names and addresses of every person registered by it and a list of every person whose registration has been suspended or revoked within the previous year.

4736.08 Application for registration.

An application for registration as a sanitarian shall be made to the state board of sanitarian registration on a form prescribed by the board and accompanied by the application fee prescribed in section 4736.12 of the Revised Code. The board shall register an applicant if the applicant meets the requirements of section 4736.16 of the Revised Code, or is of good moral character, passes an examination conducted by the board in accordance with section 4736.09 of the Revised Code, and meets the education and experience requirements of division (A), (B) or (C) of this section:

- (A) Graduated from an accredited college or university with at least a baccalaureate degree, including at least forty-five quarter units or thirty semester units of science courses approved by the board; and completed at least two years of full-time employment as a sanitarian;
- (B) Graduated from an accredited college or university with at least a baccalaureate degree, completed a major in environmental health science which included an internship program approved by the board; and completed at least one year of full-time employment as a sanitarian;
- (C) Graduated from an accredited college or university with a degree higher than a baccalaureate degree, including at least forty-five quarter units or thirty semester units of science courses approved by the board; and completed at least one year of full-time employment as a sanitarian.

(1995 H 263, 11-21-1995; 1977 H 137)

4736.09 Written examination.

Examinations required by section 4736.08 of the Revised Code shall be conducted not less than once each calendar year at such times and places as the state board of sanitarian registration prescribes. Such examinations shall be written and shall include applicable subjects in the field of environmental health science and such other subjects as the board may prescribe. The examination shall be objective and practical. Any examination papers shall not disclose the name of the applicant, but shall be identified by a number assigned by the secretary of the board. The preparation of the examination shall be the responsibility of the board; however, the board may use material prepared by recognized examination agencies.

No person shall be registered if he fails to meet the minimum grade requirements for the examination specified by the board. An applicant who fails to meet such minimum grade requirements in his first examination may be reexamined at any time and place specified by the board, upon resubmission of his application and payment of the fee prescribed in section 4736.12 of the Revised Code.

4736.10 Registration as sanitarian-in-training.

Any person who meets the educational qualifications of division (A), (B), or (C) of section 4736.08 of the Revised Code, but does not meet the experience requirement of such division may make application to the state board of sanitarian registration on a form prescribed by the board for registration as a sanitarian-in-training. The board shall register such person as a sanitarian-in-training upon payment of the fee required by section 4736.12 of the Revised Code, if he passes any examination which the board may require for registration as a sanitarian-in-training. Any such examination shall be conducted in the same manner as the examination required for registration as a sanitarian under section 4736.09 of the Revised Code.

A sanitarian-in-training shall apply for registration as a sanitarian within three years of his registration as a sanitarian-in-training.

The board may extend the registration of any sanitarian-in training who furnishes, in writing, sufficient cause for not applying for registration as a sanitarian within the three year period.

4736.11 Certificate of registration.

The state board of sanitarian registration shall issue a certificate of registration to any applicant whom it registers as a sanitarian or a sanitarian-in-training. Such certificate shall bear:

- (A) The name of the person;
- (B) The date of issue;
- (C) A serial number, designated by the board;
- (D) The seal of the board and signature of the chairman of the board;
- (E) The designation "registered sanitarian" or "sanitarian-in-training."

Certificates of registration shall expire annually on the date fixed by the board and become invalid on that date unless renewed pursuant to this section. All registered sanitarians shall be required annually to complete a continuing education program in subjects relating to practices of the profession as a sanitarian to the end that the utilization and application of new techniques, scientific advancements, and research findings will assure comprehensive service to the public. The board shall prescribe by rule a continuing education program for registered sanitarians to meet this requirement. The length of the study for this program shall be determined by the board but shall be not less than six nor more than twenty five hours during the calendar year. At least once annually the board shall provide to each registered sanitarian a list of courses approved by the board as satisfying the program prescribed by rule. Upon the request of a registered sanitarian, the secretary shall supply a list of applicable courses that the board has approved. A certificate may be renewed for a period of one year at any time prior to the date of expiration upon payment of the renewal fee prescribed by section 4736.12 of the Revised Code and upon showing proof of having complied with the continuing education requirements of this section. The state board of sanitarian registration may waive the continuing education requirement in cases of certified illness or disability which prevents the attendance at any qualified educational seminars during the twelve months immediately preceding the annual certificate of registration renewal date. Certificates which expire may be reinstated under rules adopted by the board.

(2005 H 66,10-01-2005; 1987 H 129, 07-20-1987; 1977 H 137)

4736.12 Fees.

- (A) The state board of sanitarian registration shall charge the following fees:
 - (1) To apply as a sanitarian-in-training, eighty dollars;
 - (2) For sanitarians-in-training to apply for registration as sanitarians, eighty dollars. The applicant shall pay this fee only once regardless of the number of times the applicant takes an examination required under section 4736.08 of the Revised Code.
 - (3) For persons other than sanitarians-in-training to apply for registration as sanitarians, including persons meeting the requirements of section 4736.16 of the Revised Code, one hundred sixty dollars. The applicant shall pay this fee only once regardless of the number of times the applicant takes an examination required under section 4736.08 of the Revised Code.
 - (4) The renewal fee for registered sanitarians shall be seventy-four dollars.
 - (5) The renewal fee for sanitarians-in-training shall be seventy-four dollars.
 - (6) For late application for renewal, twenty-seven dollars.

The board of sanitarian registration, with the approval of the controlling board, may establish fees in excess of the amounts provided in this section, provided that such fees do not exceed the amounts permitted by this section by more than fifty percent.

- (B) The board of sanitarian registration shall charge separate fees for examinations as required by section 4736.08 of the Revised Code, provided that the fees are not in excess of the actual cost to the board of conducting the examinations.
- (C) The board of sanitarian registration may adopt rules establishing fees for all of the following:
 - (1) Application for the registration of a training agency approved under rules adopted by the board pursuant to section 4736.11 of the Revised Code and for the annual registration renewal of an approved training agency.
 - (2) Application for the review of continuing education hours submitted for the board's approval by approved training agencies or by registered sanitarians or sanitarians-in-training.

(2005 H 66, 06-30-2005; 2003 H 95, 06-26-2003; 2001 H 94, 07-01-2001; 1999 H 283, 07-01-1999; 1995 H 263, 11-21-1995; 1993 H 152, 07-01-1993; 1989 H 111; 1987 H 129; 1977 H 137)

4736.13 Denial, refusal, revocation, or suspension of certificate.

The state board of sanitarian registration may deny, refuse to renew, revoke, or suspend a certificate of registration in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for unprofessional conduct, the practice of fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration, dereliction of duty, incompetence in the practice of environmental health science, or for other good and sufficient cause.

4736.14 Reciprocity.

The state board of sanitarian registration may, upon application and proof of valid registration, issue a certificate of registration to any person who is or has been registered as sanitarian by any other state, if the requirements of that state at the time of such registration are determined by the board to be at least equivalent to the requirements of this chapter.

4736.15 Registration required for practice of environmental health.

No person shall engage in, or offer to engage in, the practice of environmental health without being registered in accordance with sections 4736.01 to 4736.16 of the Revised Code. A sanitarian-in-training may engage in the practice of environmental health for a period not to exceed five years, provided he is supervised by a registered sanitarian. No person except a registered sanitarian shall use the title "registered sanitarian" or the abbreviation "R.S." after his name, or represent himself as a registered sanitarian. Whoever violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree.

4736.16 Sanitarians employed on or before 07-20-1987.

- (A)(1) Any person employed as a sanitarian on or before July 20, 1987, may, within six months after July 20, 1987, apply to the state board of sanitarian registration for registration as a sanitarian, and the board shall register such applicants.
 - (2) Any person employed as a sanitarian on or before July 20, 1987, who has not previously been registered under this section and did not apply for registration between July 20, 1987, and January 20, 1988, may, within thirty days after the effective date of this amendment, apply to the state board of sanitarian registration for registration as a sanitarian, and the board shall register the person.
 - (3) At the request of the applicant, the board shall review an application for registration as a sanitarian submitted prior to the effective date of this amendment that is still pending on that date. If the board determines that the applicant's education and experience related to environmental health, other than the requirement of a baccalaureate degree, are equivalent to that required for registration, the board shall register the applicant.
- (B) A registration granted under this section is the equivalent of a registration granted under section 4736.08 of the Revised Code.

4736.17 Effect of child support default on certificate.

On receipt of a notice pursuant to section 3123.43 of the Revised Code, the state board of sanitarian registration shall comply with sections 3123.41 to 3123.50 of the Revised Code and any applicable rules adopted under section 3123.63 of the Revised Code with respect to a certificate issued pursuant to this chapter.

4736-12-02 Fees.

- (A) The state board of sanitarian registration shall charge the following fees:
 - (1) For sanitarians-in-training to apply for registration as sanitarians, the fee as prescribed in division (A) (2) of section 4736.12 of the Revised Code. Should the board deny the issuance of a sanitarian registration, the application fee shall be retained. Any subsequent application for sanitarian registration shall be accompanied by another application fee.
 - (2) For persons other than sanitarians-in-training to apply for registration as sanitarians, the fee as prescribed in division (A) (3) of section 4736.12 of the Revised Code. Should the board deny the issuance of a sanitarian registration, the application fee shall be retained. Any subsequent application for sanitarian registration shall be accompanied by another application fee.
- (B) The board of sanitarian registration shall charge separate fees for examinations as required by section 4736.08 of the Revised Code, provided that the fees are not in excess of the actual cost to the board of conducting the examination.

4736-13-01 Revocation.

- (A) The state board of sanitarian registration may deny, refuse to renew, revoke or suspend a certificate of registration in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for unprofessional conduct, the practice of fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration, dereliction of duty, incompetence in the practice of environmental health science, or for other good and sufficient cause.
- (B) For the purpose of this rule, unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to:
 - (1) Falsifying any record, report, or other instrument in pursuing the practice of environmental health science as a registrant;
 - (2) Making a material misrepresentation or false promise(s) through advertisement, sales representatives, agents or otherwise in connection with the practice as a registered sanitarian;
 - (3) Allowing an unregistered person to use a registrant's certificate of registration;
 - (4) Aiding or abetting another person in the violation of Chapter 4736. of the Revised Code or the rules adopted thereunder;
 - (5) Using fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration;
 - (6) Disregarding, allowing, promoting, or advocating the continued violation of any substantive provision of any public health, safety, or environmental health law, rule, regulation, or ordinance of the United States, this state, any county, any township or any municipality for which the registrant has responsibility or comes within the practice of environmental health science;

- (7) Conviction of any felony, or any misdemeanor in the course or scope of the practice of environmental health, or any other crime which involves misstatements, fraud, or deceit, or other dishonest conduct;
 - (8) Accepting compensation, gifts or gratuities designed to enhance the provider's position over that of the position represented by the registrant.
- (C) Any person who wishes to make a complaint against a registrant licensed pursuant to this chapter shall submit the complaint in writing to the board within a reasonable time. Each complaint or allegation of a violation received by the board shall be assigned a case number and shall be recorded by the board. The board shall determine whether the allegations in the complaint are of a sufficiently serious nature to warrant formal disciplinary charges against the registrant pursuant to this section. If the board determines that formal disciplinary charges are warranted, it shall proceed in accordance with the procedures established in Chapter 119 of the Revised Code.

4736-15-02 Supervision and practice of a sanitarian-in-training.

- (A) A sanitarian-in-training may engage in the practice of environmental health provided the sanitarian-in-training is supervised by a registered sanitarian. Each sanitarian-in-training shall submit an application for renewal annually as required by rule 4736-12-01 of the Administrative Code on forms prescribed by the board. Verification from the supervising registered sanitarian that the sanitarian-in-training performed functions under the supervision of the registered sanitarian shall be submitted to the board as part of the annual renewal of the sanitarian-in-training. The board may also request a copy of the sanitarian-in-training's monthly evaluation(s) required in paragraph (D) of this rule.

- (B) The board shall establish minimum supervisory activities for a registered sanitarian to use in the evaluation of a sanitarian-in-training.
- (C) The minimum supervisory activities shall include but not be limited to:
 - (1) Being available for consultation on a daily basis;
 - (2) Provide training and technical advice;
 - (3) Review and advise on enforcement proceedings in programs specified by division (E) of section 4736.01 of the Revised Code;
 - (4) Evaluate the practice of environmental health performed by the sanitarian-in-training at least once a month.
- (D) The supervising registered sanitarian shall document each monthly evaluation of the sanitarian-in-training's practice of environmental health. Documentation of each monthly evaluation shall include five samples of inspections performed by the sanitarian-in-training during the month attached to a written evaluation which shall include the following:
 - (1) Month and year of evaluation.
 - (2) Sanitarian-in-training's name, registration number and address.
 - (3) Supervising registered sanitarian's name, registration number and address.
 - (4) Supervising registered sanitarian's written verification of fulfillment of the requirements provided in paragraph (C) of this rule.
 - (5) The supervising registered sanitarian's written comments.
 - (6) Dates and locations of five attached samples of inspections conducted during the month by the sanitarian-in-training.
 - (7) Dated signatures of the sanitarian-in-training and supervising registered sanitarian.
- (E) Monthly evaluations shall be retained by the sanitarian-in-training for one year after registration as a registered sanitarian, or for six years from the last date of employment as a sanitarian-in-training.
