Share Services and Streamline Programs

Create a Medicaid Department

The Executive Budget establishes Medicaid as a cabinet-level department effective July 1, 2013. This decision is consistent with previous Medicaid reviews and recent actions taken by the Kasich Administration, described above. The effective date is one year earlier than originally planned because the work to separate Medicaid functions from ODJFS has gone so well that both agencies agreed to pull forward the effective date.

The creation of a cabinet-level Medicaid agency will bring about many changes, but it is not intended to reduce the workforce or reduce Medicaid-related financial resources that are available to counties. The purpose behind creating a new department is to release the creative potential of the state's Medicaid team to push forward reforms already underway, and to position the program within state government commensurate with Medicaid's responsibility to improve overall health system performance, improve care for vulnerable Ohioans, and control costs for Ohio's taxpayers.

Combine the Departments of Mental Health and Addiction Services

Forty-seven of 53 county board systems administer both mental health and alcohol and drug addiction services. Many providers are certified for both types of services and a significant percentage of consumers interact with providers in both systems. However, at the state level these services are administered through two separate state agencies. The budget bill will formally consolidate ODADAS and ODMH into the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, providing additional efficiencies and improving support for local government partners, providers and clients who are participating in two treatment systems.

Implement Public Health Futures

The Mid-Biennium Review legislation established a committee of stakeholders and legislators to examine current local public health capacity, services and jurisdictional structure and assess opportunities for improvement. The budget operationalizes the recommendations of the Public Health Futures Committee, providing the following tools for shared services and operational efficiencies in local public health.

- Regionalize grant administration. Beginning in July 2013, ODH will release a request for proposals to regionalize several targeted grants. These regional RFPs will be awarded in January 2014 and consolidate 180 separate grants into 47 regional awards. Later phases of implementation will involve working with federal partners to "block grant" these programs.
- Require continuing education for board of health members. The budget requires each member of a board of health to complete eight continuing education units annually. The Budget also requires each Board of Health to include an executive officer or medical director of a hospital or the largest medical facility in the district, to facilitate community health planning.

- Require public health accreditation. The Executive Budget authorizes the ODH director to require general or city health districts to be accredited beginning in 2018 as a condition for receiving funding from ODH. Beginning July 2013, accreditation standards will be incorporated into all regional grant deliverables to assist LHDs build capacity and knowledge of the accreditation process and prepare for successful accreditation.
- Require food sanitarians to be certified. The budget requires sanitarians of a city or general health district who perform inspections of food service operations or of retail food establishments to obtain and maintain certification from the United States Food and Drug Administration. Local health departments meeting this requirement will receive less frequent surveys from ODH. Later phases of implementation will include similar standards for other mandated programs.
- Encourage shared services. Beginning in July 2014, ODH will expect local health departments to demonstrate movement toward regional shared service hubs for foundational capabilities such as human resources, payroll processing, information technology, and financial management. This item will be included in the fiscal monitoring activities included in regional grants, and applications that fail to demonstrate movement or contractual relationships with the regional hubs will result in points off in scoring.
- Allow shared services among non-contiguous cities or counties. Current law limits certain cross-jurisdictional sharing opportunities to "two or more contiguous" health districts "not to exceed five." The Executive Budget includes provisions to remove these restrictions. Also, the budget authorizes permissive multi-county levy authority for public health services.
- Require county-level public health planning. The Executive Budget requires the health commissioner of a general health district to develop a comprehensive community assessment for the county, in collaboration with city health districts, private health care providers, hospitals, other medical facilities or medical services, behavioral health providers, and members of the general public.

Coordinate Workforce Programs

The Executive Budget includes several initiatives to coordinate health sector workforce programs. These initiatives prioritize advanced primary care and prioritize underrepresented minorities in health professions. They accelerate efforts already underway through the Governor's Office of Workforce Transformation (OWT) and Office of Health Transformation (OHT) to coordinate 16 state agencies to identify health sector workforce needs, align existing workforce programs, reform higher education training programs, and change payments for health services to support workforce priorities.

- Provide comprehensive health sector workforce data. The Ohio Department of Health (ODH) is leading an initiative to obtain comprehensive state-level health sector workforce data. ODH will work with OWT and OHT to develop an advanced primary care workforce forecasting model to assist in planning for health professions education programs and recruitment and retention strategies.

Understanding License Verification: When interpreting the verification information provided on this site, you should pay close attention to the "Current Issue Date," the "Expiration Date," and the "Status." The "Current Issue Date" and "Expiration Date" fields provide the time frame of the most recent license period. The "Status" field describes the actual status of the license for the period provided.

For a license to be valid, the current date must be within the "Current Issue Date" and "Expiration Date" range and the "Status" must indicate an "Active" status. If either the current date is outside the range displayed or the status indicates something other than "Active," the license may not be active.

Status Definitions: Below are descriptions of the most common 'Active' statuses.

- ACTIVE - the license is current within the date range displayed.
- ACTIVE IN RENEWAL - the license is current within the date range displayed, but the individual has not completed the renewal process.
- ACTIVE IN RENEWAL - INCOMPLETE - the license is current within the date range displayed, and the individual has started, but not completed, the renewal process.

Disclaimer: The Joint Commission and the NCQA consider on-line status information as fulfilling the primary source requirement for verification of licensure in compliance with their respective credentialing standards.

Verification Performed: 3/13/2013.

Due to the overwhelming number of comments regarding the new web verification site, we have simplified the search options available.

Search Instructions: We recommend that searches be performed by either License Number or Name. Do NOT attempt to use a combination of Name and License Number. The use of City, State, Zip and County should not be necessary for most searches.

The 'Issue' and 'Expiration' dates provide the time frame of the most recent license or certification period. For a license or certificate to be valid, the current date must be within the 'Issue' and 'Expiration' date range and the 'Status' must indicate an 'Active' state. If either the current date is outside the range displayed or the status indicates something other than 'Active', the license or certificate may not be active.

- ACTIVE - AUDIT CE PENDING - the license or certificate is current within the date range displayed, and the individual is being audited for continuing education requirements.

- LAPSED - A licensee or certificate holder has failed to fulfill all requirements for renewal, and has failed to comply with the requirements to place their license or certificate on inactive status. This individual does not hold a current, valid license or certificate, and is not authorized to engage in the practice for which the license or certificate was issued.

Certifying Org. - when "Not Applicable" is displayed in the "Certifying Org." field, the Clinical Nurse Specialists was issued a certificate of authority on or before December 31, 2000 and was required to hold a graduate degree with a major in a clinical area of nursing and was not required to pass a certification examination.

Discipline Column - a blank field indicates that there has been no final action taken by the Board. This field will be updated within 5 business days following a Board meeting.

In December 2009 the Board changed the descriptive subcategory of LPN licenses to more clearly display the differences between licensees authorized to administer 'medications only' and those authorized to administer 'medications and limited IV therapy procedures'.

LPN Meds - A licensed practical nurse who is authorized by the Board to administer medications.

LPN M-IV - A licensed practical nurse who is authorized by the Board to administer medications and to perform limited IV Therapy procedures.
